

All Rise Again

Blackberry Smoke

Crazy days lie ahead they say
A sign of these times or the price we pay
Lookin' at the world from behind my door
Tryin' to hold on to what I'm hopin' for Everything behind me is gettin' hard to see
I can hear my memory screamin' out to me

Now is the place, here is the time
Keep me from losin' my mind

Oh, how could we know
Where'd it all go
How did we all get here and
When, you watch the wheel spin
This ain't how it ends
Be ready when
We all rise again

Well we better get ready for the long ride
There's a new world waitin' on the other side
I'm gonna hold on to every precious day
We're all gonna feel the world turn a brand new way
I'm gonna shout it from the mountaintop
Don't waste nothin', not one single drop

Now is the place, here is the time
Keep me from losin' my mind

Oh, how could we know
Where'd it all go
How did we all get here and
When, you watch the wheel spin
This ain't how it ends
Be ready when
We all rise again

Dyin' to live, dyin' to love
Tryin' to rise above

Oh, how could we know
Where'd it all go
How did we all get here and
When, you watch the wheel spin
This ain't how it ends
Be ready when
We all rise again

We all rise again
