

Fire In The Hole

Blackberry Smoke

Show me something real
Let me hold it in the palm of my hand
What I wanna hear
Tell me that's your best laid plans

You cross your fingers when you
Look me in my eyes

Fire in the hole
Higher than you've ever known

It's a bitter pill
It's a hard old row to hoe
You're standing in the way
Fucking up the ebb and the flow

You smile and tell me that this
Happens all the time

Fire in the hole
Higher than you've ever known

I can't see why you are the one
Who holds the key
When you take yours it looks like
Nothing left for me
