

The Only Thing She Left Behind

Blackberry Smoke

She left me without givin' a reason why she didn't even hang around to watch me cry she didn't even leave a note tellin' me "daddy, that's all she wrote" the only thing she left behind was me she left me here to wonder what in the world I did wrong if she was so unhappy Lord what took her so long?

She didn't even leave my supper on the stove she took off in the only pickup truck I ever drove
she didn't even leave a note
tellin' me "daddy, that's all she wrote"

She left me on the front porch hummin' this old lonesome tune I guess I could go after her but the race comes on at noon

She left me without givin' a reason why she ddidn't even hang around to watch me cry
she didn't even leave a note

come to think of it, thank God she left the TV
