Confess

Blackbriar

Weakling! You'd better start weeping!
We cannot be fooled
You have smeared your cheeks with spittle
We won't be overruled!

Weakling! You'd better start speaking!
We cannot be fooled
Only lies come from your garrulous tongue
We won't be overruled!

Weakling! All you do is deceiving!
We cannot be fooled
When you think alone, you think evil
And we won't be overruled!

Weakling! What are you scheming?
We cannot be fooled
Tear her body open with torture hooks
We won't be overruled!

You have been causing illness and death
We have caught you in the act
Now I lay you down on the torture rack
Confess to us, confess!
To the evidence of the fact!
Confess to us, confess!
To the evidence of the fact!

Weakling! You'd better start weeping!
Weakling! You'd better start speaking!
Weakling! All you do is deceiving!
Weakling! What are you scheming?

Weakling! You'd better start weeping!
Weakling! You'd better start speaking!
Weakling! All you do is deceiving!
Weakling! What are you scheming?

Weakling! You'd better start weeping!
Weakling! You'd better start speaking!
Weakling! All you do is deceiving!
Weakling! What are you scheming?

Weakling! You'd better start weeping!
Weakling! You'd better start speaking!
Weakling! All you do is deceiving!
Weakling! What are you scheming?

We cannot be fooled! And we won't be overruled!
We cannot be fooled! And we won't be overruled!

You filthy nymphomaniac
We have caught you in the act

You have been causing illness and death
We have caught you in the act
Now I lay you down on the torture rack

Confess to us, confess!
To the evidence of the fact!
Confess to us, confess!
To the evidence of the fact!
