

Lilith Be Gone

Blackbriar

Oh, did I bruise your ego?
By saying we're equal
Oh, did I bruise your ego?
And now you're saying I'm evil

Sing my lullaby, Lilith be gone, Lilith be gone, Lilith be gone
Sing my lullaby, Lilith be gone, Lilith be gone, Lilith be gone

Oh, did I bring you shame?
By stating we're the same
Did I bring you shame?
And now you're denigrating my name

Sing my lullaby, Lilith be gone, Lilith be gone, Lilith be gone
Sing my lullaby and protect your precious spawn

I am the night, I am freedom
They say I am an infamous demon
I've heard it all, a witch, a serpent
Some say I am the devil's servant

Oh, did I bruise your ego?
By saying we're equal
Oh, did I bruise your ego?
And now you're saying I'm evil

Sing my lullaby, Lilith be gone, Lilith be gone, Lilith be gone
Sing my lullaby and protect your precious spawn

I am the night, I am freedom
They say I am an infamous demon
I've heard it all, a witch, a serpent
Some say I am the devil's servant

Lililili Lililili Lilililililith
A succubus, tempting you in the dark of night
Lililili Lililili Lilililililith
Lililili Lililili Lilililililith

I am the night, I am freedom
They say I am an infamous demon
I've heard it all, a witch, a serpent
Some say I am the devil's servant
Stealing infants under the moonlight
A succubus, tempting you in the dark of night
