

Summer's Gone

Blackfield

Summer's gone
Again you're on your own
Truth was made of lies
Promises untied
Love that aches
Like a knife in your back
It's hard to feel alive
In a ghost town where you're bound

You were flying high
You held the stars in a clear sky
You need to hide tonight
After everything went wrong
Your future isn't bright
It gets darker every night
And you find out that life is beautiful
When you're not around

Summer's gone
Again you're on your own
Truth was made of lies
Promises untied
Love that aches
Like a knife in your back
It's hard to feel alive
In a ghost town where you're bound

You were flying high
You held the stars in a clear sky
You need to hide tonight
After everything went wrong
Your future isn't bright
It gets darker every night
And you find out that life is beautiful
When you're not around

Summer's gone
Summer's gone
Summer's gone
Summer's gone
Summer's gone
Summer's gone
Summer's gone
Summer's gone
