

White Nights

Blackfield

Lately it seems all the plans that I dream
Set me on a dead-end road
With each passing day it feels safer to say
My natural state is being alone

Give me a chance just to hold you again
After long sleepless nights I escape inside you
Give me your hand and I'll show you why
All of these nights fade to white without you

When I'm asleep I can try to believe
That you're still breathing beside me
But when I awake my heart it will break
When I reach out and find the bed empty

Give me a chance just to hold you again
After long sleepless nights I escape inside you
Give me your hand and I'll show you why
All of these nights fade to white without you

Give me a chance just to hold you again
After long sleepless nights I escape inside you
Give me your hand and I'll show you why
All of these nights fade to white without you

With each passing day it feels safer to say
My natural state is being alone
