Well the first time that I saw her She was standin' on the floor And it hit me like a bolt of lightnin' baby When she walked through the door And the time was right Stars were shinin' bright And I kept fallin' Yes it may sound funny to you Now she's my baby blue Well it was a jumpin' night And everybody playin' their games When I saw her in the light I knew I'd never be the same Yes the stars were bright A jumpin' Friday night And I kept fallin' Well it may sound funny to you Oh she's my baby blue [Solo] There's no lies between us No games we play So why wait till tomorrow, baby When we can live today And now I'm the light The light that's shinin' bright In her eyes, oh yes Well it may sound funny to you Oh she's my baby blue Oh now listen, it may sound funny to you Oh she's my baby blue
