

Stone By Stone

BlackHawk

Stone by stone, heart by heart
You're tearin' my world, and all my dreams apart
On your own, you're doing it stone by stone

Brick by brick, tear by tear
The love we made has slowly disappeared
It's as good as gone, you're takin' it stone by stone

Why can't you up and just walk away
Do you have to drag it out day after day
I'm tired of tryin', I'm giving up
You tear it down faster than I can pick it up

Room by room, wall by wall
Pretty soon it's gonna fall
Wrecking this home
Doin' it stone by stone

Why can't you up and just walk away
Do you have to drag it out day after day
I'm tired of tryin', I'm giving up
You tear it down faster than I can pick it up

Stone by stone, heart by heart
You're tearin' my world, and all my dreams apart
On your own, you're doin' it stone by stone

Stone by stone by stone by stone
Stone by stone by stone by stone
On your own, you're doin' it stone by stone
