

Nothing On You

Blackjack Billy

I like the dolled up you
With your high dollar, high-heeled shoes
And that red lipstick, poppin' them lips
And that liner on your baby blues
I like your dress down too
When you break out them rokin boots
In your plain white tee, and your faded jeans
The ones with the holes on through

But girl to tell you the truth

There ain't nothing, ain't nothing like nothing on you
Ain't nothing like baby when you wake up, no makeup
Honey just the way the lord makes us
Man I wanna stay, honey lay down what you all day
You're amazing baby, so beautiful, all natural
Ain't nothing like, nothing like, nothing on you

(Mnhmm)

(Woo)

(Hell naw)

And I ain't gon' lie
You're a sun kissed, summer-time find
Layin' out on the beach, in that pink two piece
On your front with the strings untied
You can get wrapped up in what you want to Go on, put on a little somethin'
You're fine, you're a dime every time
But girl I love it when

There ain't nothing, ain't nothing like nothing on you
Ain't nothing like baby when you wake up, no makeup
Honey just the way the lord makes us
Make me wanna stay, honey lay down what you all day
You're amazing baby, so beautiful, all natural
Ain't nothing like, nothing like, nothing on you

Pick it out, put it on, but baby when you take it off
Mmmmmhmmmm, yeah
Pick it out, put it on, but baby when you take it off
Baby when you take it off
Pick it out, put it on, but baby when you take it off
Yeah ain't nothing like you babe
Pick it out, put it on, but baby when you take it off
Ooooooh yeah yeah, little baby baby

There ain't nothing, ain't nothing like nothing on you
Ain't nothing like baby when you wake up, no makeup
Honey just the way the lord made ya
Make me wanna stay, honey lay down what you all day
You're amazing baby, so beautiful, all natural
Ain't nothing like, nothing like, nothing on you

Pick it out, put it on, but baby when you take it off
Ain't nothing like, nothing on you
Pick it out, put it on, but baby when you take it off

Ain't nothing like, nothing on you
There ain't nothing, ain't nothing like nothing on you
There ain't nothing, ain't nothing like nothing on you
Ain't nothing like nothing on you
