

Falling

Blacklite District

Hey
I don't wanna watch you slip away
I don't wanna watch you go away
I don't wanna know that you're falling

Hey
I don't wanna miss you everyday
I don't wanna watch you fade away
I don't wanna know that you're falling
I cannot know that you're falling
I cannot know that you're falling

I don't wanna know that you're not here
It doesn't feel right without you near
I know it'll traumatize me
Terrify me, horrify me
I don't wanna lay awake at night
Full of regret, hanging on too tight
I know it'll traumatize me
Terrify me, horrify me

Hey, won't you wait for me?
Hey, won't you stay?

Hey
I don't wanna watch you slip away
I don't wanna watch you go away
I don't wanna know that you're falling
Hey
I don't wanna miss you everyday
I don't wanna watch you fade away
I don't wanna know that you're falling
I cannot know that you're falling
I cannot know that you're falling

Hey, won't you wait for me?
Hey, won't you stay?
Hey, won't you wait for me?
Hey, won't you stay?

Hey
I don't wanna watch you slip away
I don't wanna watch you go away
I don't wanna know that you're falling
Hey
I don't wanna watch you slip away
I don't wanna watch you go away
I don't wanna know that you're falling
