

Like Yesterday

Blacklite District

I've been looking for some time for me
I've been looking for some time to see
I'm looking for a place I know
Won't you take me there? Won't you get me home?
Now the time has come
For me to carry on
Didn't think I'd have to be this strong
But life goes on

It's not your fault
You're not ever to blame
Time has its way
And cannot be changed

Like yesterday
Oh yesterday
Like yesterday
You're gone
Take me away
From everyday
Like yesterday
You're gone

Like a crash I remember you
And all the the bullshit you put me through
I was blind standing next to you
But now I see

Everyday I was there for you
On my back, yeah I carried you
In my head I tried to bury you
Yeah, I dig so deep

It's not your fault
You're not ever to blame
Time has its way
And cannot be changed

Like yesterday
Oh yesterday
Like yesterday
You're gone
Take me away
From everyday
Like yesterday
You're gone

I feel my anger fade
It's going going gone
What I thought was perfect
Was poison all along

Like yesterday
Oh yesterday
Fuck yesterday
It's gone
Like yesterday

Oh yesterday
Like yesterday
You're gone
Take me away
From everyday
Like yesterday
You're gone
