

Same Old Shit

Blacklite District

Yeah I'm just trying to change my ways
Same old shit just a different day
Same old shit just a different day
A different day
Yeah I'm just trying to change my ways
Same old shit just a different day
Same old shit just a different day
A different day

Yeah I don't really know where to go from here
I don't really know if I'm seeing clear
Maybe it's time I disappear, disappear
Yeah I don't know nothing 'bout moving on
That's what they say but they're all gone
Maybe I should really stop hanging on, hanging on

I'm supposed to stop but I never will
It's a lot to take and I don't care if it kills
Life is what we make so we make me a deal
I'm gonna change my ways and this time I'm for real

Yeah I'm just trying to change my ways
Same old shit just a different day
Same old shit just a different day
A different day
Yeah I'm just trying to change my ways
Same old shit just a different day
Same old shit just a different day
A different day
