Just a lil love from myself
When you couldn't be the one to help
Had to kick it and I did it tell whoever you wanna tell
Get kicked to the curb, ya kicked out
Never kick a girl when she kicked down
Who you gon kiss now
Know you gon miss how I move
From the top to the bottom of my kicks now

So what's the answer
So what are you going to do now
I'll break ya break ya heart
Never asked for much
Don't even try
Don't pick up the words I just tossed around
I ain't nothing like
The same same girls that you've had
Yeah, I just do what I want

The dark night might take me away
But now I can dance for myself
I'll jump over the wall that is you
I'll kick it if you're down kick it if you down

Can I kick it
In the dark sky
I'm going to cause a scene and light it on fire
Can I kick it
I'm going to destroy the world that is you
And shine brightly

And I'm letting it all out
I have nothing to lose
I'm going to find myself

I'm okay being alone
Don't feel bad for me
I'm going to forget you now

Never needed nothing else
Just a lil love from myself
When you couldn't be the one to help
Had to kick it and I did it tell whoever you wanna tell
Get kicked to the curb, ya kicked out
Never kick a girl when she kicked down
Who you gon kiss now
Know you gon miss how I move
From the top to the bottom of my kicks now

The dark night might take me away
But now I can dance for myself

I'm okay being alone
Don't feel bad for me
I'm going to forget you now

So what's the answer
So what are you going to do now
I'm leaving your frustrating world
And flying above it

I'll kick it how I wanna kick it
When I wanna kick it
No you can't tell me not to kick it
Cause I'm bout to kick it
I'll kick it how I wanna kick it
When I wanna kick it
No you can't tell me not to kick it
Cause I'm bout to kick it

And I'm letting it all out
I have nothing to lose
I'm going to find myself
I'm okay being alone
Don't feel bad for me
I'm going to forget you now
