□□ □ □□ stay with me

So easily, with harsh words
You put scars in my heart
Without even saying sorry
Again, I'm comforting myself
Always nervous
If you're gonna leave me
I just want you to stay

In your expressionless face
That's getting more and more dull
I whisper to the mirror,
Let's slowly let this go
You take me for granted
But that's you
But still, stay stay stay with me

This sad melody resembles you
It makes me cry eh eh
Your scent is a sweet felony
I hate you so much but i love you

Before the dark night traps me in
Don't leave me
Do you still love me? If you feel the same
Don't leave today
Don't ask why it has to be you
Just stay with me

(It goes a little something like)
Lalalalalalala Lalalalalalala Lalalalalalala
Lalalalalalala Lalalalalalala Lalalalalalala
I don't expect a lot right now
Just stay with me

There's nothing more I want now
I can't even tell if my heart is beating
Rather than forceful conversations with others
I'd rather be in awkward silence with you
So stay, wherever that may be
Sometimes, when darkness comes, I'll be your fire
In this world that is a lie the only truth, it's you
This a letter from me to you

This sad melody resembles you
It makes me cry eh eh
Your scent is a sweet felony
I hate you so much but i love you

Before the dark night traps me in

Don't leave me
Do you still love me? If you feel the same
Don't leave today
Don't ask why it has to be you
Just stay with me
