

All Mine Now

Blacktop Mojo

I'm sick of learning how to lose a thing I've never laid a hand on

Every time that I reach out it's there and then it's all gone

I swear I can taste it on the tip of my tongue

They tell me I can't have it all

They say that I'm too young

But it's all mine now

Yeah it's all mine now

Keep giving me the friction babe

You're rubbing me the wrong way

Now you've started up a fire

You can't put it out it's too late

Remember back before when you didn't know my name?

I don't need another moth to fly around my flame

Cause it's all mine now

Yeah it's all mine now

It's all mine now

It's all mine now

Yeah it's all mine now

It's all mine now
