

Burn the Ships

Blacktop Mojo

Can you hear Valhalla call?
Will you dine there tonight?
Take this fleet that we sailed here upon
And set it all alight

Burn the ships and watch them all sink down
There's no voyage home, there's no turning around
So as you look into your enemies' eyes
Know that you've one choice left:
Fight or die

Feel the frenzy in your bones
As the charge draws near
Blood and steel are all we know
The time for glory is here

Burn the ships and watch them all sink down
There's no voyage home, there's no turning around
So as you look into your enemies' eyes
Fight or die

Burn the ships and watch them all sink down
There's no voyage home, there's no turning around
So as you look into your enemies' eyes
Fight or die
Fight or die
