

Jealousy

Blacktop Mojo

Inside on the outside
Deaf, dumb, and tongue-tied
Oh hey there young man
What's wrong with you now?
You're sitting silent
You don't make a sound

Longing for the one time
Her eyes might meet mine
She looks up at him and smiles so bright
She never saw me as they both went by

Jealousy
It's killing me
I'm drinking poison hoping that they'll choke
Across the room I feel so alone
Jealousy
Jealousy

Why can't she see
Why him not me
Oh they dance around the room
And she holds him close
If I think it loud enough
Do you think she'll know?

Jealousy
It's killing me
I'm drinking poison hoping that they'll choke
Across the room I feel so alone
Jealousy
Jealousy

Jealousy
It's killing me
I'm drinking poison hoping that they'll choke
Across the room I feel so alone
Jealousy
Jealousy
