

Red Enough

Blacktop Mojo

Somebody come get me
I can't drive
I'm laying in the grass
By your old street sign
It's been a few years now
Since I walked you home
I know you don't live here anymore

Anyone could see
That you were leaving
Everyone but me
Now I'm thinking

If I could paint this town red enough
I won't know you're gone
I can still taste you on my tongue
'Til the liquor leaves my blood
I'll know I'm
Alone now
Unless I paint this town red enough

I had a drink
With the devil tonight
He said something sideways
That I didn't like
I balled up my fist
And he reached for his gun
Felt a tap on my shoulder
"Hey buddy you're done"

Anyone could see
That you were leaving
Everyone but me
Now I'm thinking

If I could paint this town red enough
I won't know you're gone
I can still taste you on my tongue
'Til the liquor leaves my blood
I'll know I'm
Alone now
Unless I paint this town red enough

If I could paint this town red enough
I won't know you're gone
I can still taste you on my tongue
'Til the liquor leaves my blood
I'll know I'm
Alone now
Unless I paint this town red enough
