

Shadows on the Wall

Blacktop Mojo

Staring at the wall in front of you
Watching shadows fall from view

This is all we know
This is all we know
This is all we know to be true

How do I describe the color of the sky
When you've never been outside?
The picture you see is so small, it's not the world at all
I wish I could tear you away from the wall

Conviction blinds us all until we ask why
That questions lead to falls is a lie

This is all we know
This is all we know
This is all we know to be true

How do I describe the color of the sky
When you've never been outside?
The picture you see is so small, it's not the world at all
I wish I could tear you away from the wall

I can't see through the glare in my eyes
Why did you have to drag me outside?
How can I go back to darkness now
And tell my brothers what I have found?
How can I go back to darkness now
And tell my brothers what I have found?
How can I go back to darkness now?

How do I describe the color of the sky
When you've never been outside?
The picture you see is so small, it's not the world at all
I wish I could tear you away from the wall
