

Strike Me

Blacktop Mojo

I know You wanna light up the sky

I've seen the growing divide
I've seen the end of the rope
I've seen the rain come
I've seen confusion in the eyes
Of a nation without hope
I've seen the rain come

Oh let the lightning strike me
And please don't ask me nicely
I know You wanna light up the sky
It's been so dark here lately
You might as well just take me
Nobody's gonna wonder why

I've seen good men gunned down
And broken glass in the streets
I've seen the rain come
I've seen the fire in The Hills
I've seen where fear and anger meet
Oh let the rain come

Let the lightning strike me
And please don't ask me nicely
I know You wanna light up the sky
It's been so dark here lately
You might as well just take me
Nobody's gonna wonder why
Nobody's gonna wonder why

Let the lightning strike me
And please don't ask me nicely
I know You wanna light up the sky
It's been so dark here lately
You might as well just take me
Nobody's gonna wonder why
Nobody's gonna wonder why
