

Sweat

Blacktop Mojo

Another day, another dollar, will it ever end?
Breaking my back burning up in the sun again
I'd never complain, but I swear
If sweat were money, I'd be a millionaire

I wake up, grab my hammer, and I'm out the door
Cup of coffee, punch the clock and I'm back for more
I feel the heat already, but I ain't scared
If sweat were money, I'd be a millionaire

I'll keep going
The whistle is blowing
There's no stopping now

Break my hands
Break my bones
Take my body
But I'll keep my soul
There ain't no quitting
'Til the job gets done
'Cause I make my living
On sweat and blood

Another night on the road all alone
Boss man been keeping me way too long
I left my baby at home and it ain't fair
If sweat were money, I'd be a millionaire

I'll keep going
The whistle is blowing
There's no stopping now

Break my hands
Break my bones
Take my body
But I'll keep my soul
There ain't no quitting
'Til the job gets done
'Cause I make my living
On sweat and blood

Break my hands
Break my bones
Take my body
But I'll keep my soul
There ain't no quitting
'Til the job gets done
'Cause I make my living
On sweat and blood
