blackwave.

Desire many sides but can't handle one
Regardless of the facts I'ma have me sum
Have me spun around my axis till I'm dizzy dumb
Bite my tongue, I'm just having too much fun
And I seen you looking like you're ready to kill
'Cause I know you been craving a smile that's real
But instead you been praying a while wishing to get ya pockets filled
But worry not, I'll tell you how it feel

To love it when you bop your head like that
'Cause it slap so hard ya could break ya neck
With so much joy you start to understand
If you turn out dead, it's not that bad

Desire
Can't decide on
What is right or
What is wrong
Desire
Are we lying?
Can't deny it any more
Desire

Up the fees, drop a stack for steez
Or a rental just to flex the keys, I get it
By any means, want your neck to freeze
Feed your greed with your endless needs, we get it
That you ain't got nothing you can hold on to
So you move around the world like it move 'round you
Man I been there too, and it ain't nu'n new
But if you'd like to learn I could show you

How to love it when you bop your head like that
'Cause it slap so hard ya could break ya neck
With so much joy you start to understand
If you turn out dead, it's not that bad

Desire
Can't decide on
What is right or
What is wrong
Desire
Are we lying?
Can't deny it any more
Desire

Chat funny being mad drunk
Dressing funky looking mad bomb
If it hits want you to spit it like a anthem
Go like bu-bu bu-bu bu-bu bu-bum
