

good day

blackwave.

Dreamin'
All night, all day I don't sleep
Gravity don't exist 'round here
I can't get off my feet
So why won't you
Blow the dust off my surface
Fix me up and give me purpose
Even if I don't need it?
'Cause you caught me on a good day

Laying still, taking pills
Just to get out of bed
I'm missing thrills, cannot feel
'Cause I'm light in my head
Ain't paying bills
Way too chill, wish I got fire instead
But on the real
Nothing feels like it's posing a threat
Every day feels the same
I stopped looking ahead
A long time ago I was sure
This was my path
I wanna be led
I wanna be taken away
Tears to be shed
But I don't feel nothing
You just caught me on a good day
And I'm just feeling like a bootleg version of myself
Should approach it in a new way
New pace, true friends
Losing all my loose ends
Foolish, acting like it's easy to be fooled with
I gotta take it seriously, seriously
This shit is fucking killing me
I've been ignoring this for too long
I gotta move on
Go to bed with my shoes on
And start

Dreamin'
All night, all day I don't sleep
Gravity don't exist 'round here
I can't get off my feet
So why won't you
Blow the dust off my surface
Fix me up and give me purpose
Even if I don't need it?
'Cause you caught me on a good day

Two in the afternoon turn and I snooze
No Zzz's, mind clouded by the news
Of my pops that suddenly died in foreign
Ears ringing, couldn't even hear the silence for 'I'm Prrrrrr, I turn and I snooze
I'd rather be on fun shit but today I lose
A battle I didn't choose but I had to pick Right now I just need the world to get off my _

And quit tryna fix my shit for me
I just need time
But seems I can't afford it
Always need to be rollin', always something important
That be knocking at my dox in the morning
Yet I rise and shine but rarely on time
Tired of maintaining that 9 to 5 smile
While feeding my addiction of escaping what's before me
Can't control but I know I just wanna get back to

Dreamin'
All night, all day I don't sleep
Gravity don't exist 'round here
I can't get off my feet
So why won't you
Blow the dust off my surface
Fix me up and give me purpose
Even if I don't need it?
'Cause you caught me on a good day
