Wake up, wake up, wake up
Wake up, way up, wake up

Flip up the switch, midnight marauding the fridge
Find what I missed all outta bounds got no script
Scrap all my riches to get the right dish for my top
Yes man repeatedly nod, bop with my head when it pop
Shots to the heads who don't rock what I jot
Spin back the clock in attempt to reclaim what's forgotten
Out of the box nothing common
Pash 'n shoot get me right off the bottom
Fuel my body with energy I knock 'em back
I recollect what's gone through my head in the past
I'm reconnecting the dots that were lost in
The void, in my pockets
When I needed cash
I went adrift to find dreams
With no idea where my choices are taking me

Are we still dreaming?
Is this the life we chose?
Are we still
Wake up, wake up
Wake up, wake up
Wake up, wake up
Wake up, yeah
Wake up, wake up, yeah
Wake up, wake up
Wake up, wake up
Wake up

Ain't even need to flex, we just wreck the set
Eradicate all hatred that's a fundament
Hmm, hold on to that
If you ain't understand let me run it back
Wooh, I'm soaring
My speed the highest recorded
According to capture on kodak I'm faded
Ain't hold back, get mo racks, ye me gotta make it

Yuh, ain't nu'n mistaken I know the stakes
I'ma just take what I came to take
And then I'm gone
Find my way home, depending on the lifespan of my phone, with squad or my lo

But y'all already know
Ain't no chance that that motherfucker living these days
Probably die in my hands, disturb all my plans
Before I made 'em, no disclosure, I hate 'I'm
