

Realize Now

blackwave.

I believe that a man ought to, are here to-to grow (Mhm) themselves
Into the full- into the best good that they could be

I realize now
When the sun came down
It was only for a reason
Should've made it back this evening
It feels like now
Our time is running out
Hope it's only for this evening

It's the unusual, but a nigga off the bean
Caffeine flow through me like a sea I, me
I need to cool it down cool it down
Before it all outta control and nigga drown
Get lost and found again hours later
I would date her navigate to where it greater than dreams
Everything is better then seems, the grass greener than the other side
I hope you'll get to feel what it's like

I wish you could've seen it
I wanna make you feel it
I really can't believe it
(I hope you feel it too)
I wish you could've seen it
I wanna make you feel it
I really can't believe it
And I can feel it too

I realize now
When the sun came down
It was only for a reason
Should've made it back this evening
It feels like now
Our time is running out
Hope it's only for this evening

Ain't no gravity heavy enough to keep holding me down
Seen the world as I like it and now I want another round
Of the greatest moments, and the fragile too
Forever falling but without it would've never made it up to you
The truth, exposed in the bare open
Let you read me you can call yourself the chosen one holding some love some peace of mind unseen by my eye
I hope you'll ever feel what I feel

I wish you could've seen it
I wanna make you feel it
I really can't believe it
(I hope you feel it too)
I wish you could've seen it
I wanna make you feel it
I really can't believe it
And I can feel it too

Bliss the only emotion I allow to come my way
I'm here to stay, unlock the power, throw the key away

Keep our synergy levels high, aligned like a syzygy
I'm with it, you with it, you feeling me, I'm feeling you
You paint the canvas, holding everything in place just like ya Atlas
Making me go bananas with every spoken sentence
Really mixing up my strategy and liquor that get me numb
Oughta go figure, what the hell going on

I realize now
When the sun came down
It was only for a reason
Should've made it back this evening
It feels like now
Our time is running out
Hope it's only for this evening

I wish you could've seen it
I wanna make you feel it
I really can't believe it
(I hope you feel it too)
I wish you could've seen it
I wanna make you feel it
I really can't believe it
And I can feel it too
