Time's finally come to say good morning to the world
But ask me how I'm doing still don't wanna be disturbed
Whether I'm prepared for change, change is left to be confirmed
If you with it then I'm with it if not you left in the dirt
Please, remind me of the man I was
Memories been lost all I hear is buzz
Tssht, a bummer, a lover I love her like the summer
Said I'ma need more commas if I'd like to keep her number
Well fuck it I'm good

I got different versions of myself yeah, yeah
Can't nobody tell me who I am nah, nah
I got different versions of myself yeah, yeah
Switch it
Switch it

Can't nobody tell me who I am nah, nah

Switch it
Switch it

Swish

Speed it up, keep it up, run it
Hurry up reach the summit
Heat it up, reach above it
Don't care what you feel about it
Looking down upon the bottom
Want our mama in blossom
We need a recipe, a remedy
I got some I got some
Some of that magic, that fire
Fill up your heart and your soul
A philosopher's stone
Turning lead into gold
Fame and the fortune for all
Got love, got friendships on call

Sit back relax like the fly on the wall

I got different versions of myself yeah, yeah
Can't nobody tell me who I am nah, nah
I got different versions of myself yeah, yeah
Switch it
Switch it
Switch it
Yeah
I got different versions of myself yeah
Can't nobody tell me who I am nah
