

I made RedLight, now it's trying to stop me
But I can't let it make me
I made RedLight, now it's trying to stop me
I made RedLight, now it's trying to stop me
But I can't let it make me

No face is how I came in
'Cause I can't trust them, they keep changing
Bad luck, I'm still draining
Need them pills, I call Cady

I'm speaking secrets with the ravens
He got too lost and I can't save him
Where did I go, no information
Rain on the roof, shit is 'bout to cave in

I'm going crazy like I'm 18
Nike on my feet, fuck it, I'm not paying
He only hate me 'cause I hate him

I mean nothing and that means it means nothing to me
Echoes in your mind of me, I know you still think of me
I switch on you like a screen, I nod off in a dream
I can't really be seen, if you know what I mean
Turn your best friend to a fiend, turn your back on me, please
Tryna focus on my out but I can't really see
Put 10,000 in my jeans, now they're nice when we meet
You put 10,000 on some snow, but you can't really ski
I'm still in the night, Prada shoes when I creep
You still work a 9-5, but that don't work for me
Put the Drain Gang on my face so you know that it's me
I'm with my dogs in the park and we don't need a leash

No face is how I came in
'Cause I can't trust them, they keep changing
Bad luck, I'm still draining
Need them pills, I call Cady

Falling off
Baby, you know I'm falling off
Falling off
Baby, you know I'm falling off

I'm going crazy like I'm 18
Nike on my feet, fuck it, I'm not paying
He only hate me 'cause I hate him...
Drain Gang...
