Bladée

Still in the night, I should be knighted
You pay the member fee but you're still not invited
I get the feeling that you're brain dead
They said I should've stayed dead, but the spotlight, I crave it
You only like me cause I'm famous
Turn up to the drainers, wake up all your neighbours
Had a sickness since the cradle
OG got me lazy, in traffic with Cady

Reach in the well for a necklace
When the moon is crescent
DG the new One Direction
10k, I count my blessings
Reach for the stars, am I destined?
Turn a note into ash for the dragon
Bleed on the block for my brethren
Trash star shining bright in dog heaven

Leave in the fall like I'm a dead leaf
I lost my memory, but it came back and drenched me
I have a feeling that I'm crazy
I know that they hate me, but they wanna be me
I roll up kushy in a dead leaf
Chilling at the dead sea, it's just me and Lucy
Might pass out in the back seat
Back seat of a taxi, drop me on a backstreet

Life, the end is near (hold on)
Love, it can take us there (somewhere)
I can drop it all
Just to see it fall

Reach in the well for a necklace
When the moon is crescent
DG the new One Direction
10k, I count my blessings
Reach for the stars, am I destined?
Burn the knight into ash with the dragon
Bleed on the block for my brethren
Trash star shining bright in dog heaven
Reach in the well for a necklace
When the moon is crescent
DG the new One Direction
10k, I count my blessings
Reach for the stars, am I destined?
Burn the knight into ash with the dragon
Bleed on the block for my brethren
Trash star shining bright in dog heaven
