

All this old money really make me feel old
Mark the tracks when I go, remember me when I go
What's the facts when you talk; and you don't know?
Make it red in the snow, in the trees like a crow
With my brats buying clothes; we gross
Black bag with the trash pack, weigh like a stone
I text Thaiboy: "Send the cash to me through the post"
Telling Nino: "Send the stack to me through the post"
I've been staying in my head trippin', nobody knows
I've been moving 10 feet back when you're coming close
I've been staying in the Red Light, red like a rose
All this time I'll get your hopes up, you're talkin' to a ghost
Forever is a long time, I wasn't even close
Hide my wounds like I'm a pro, now it won't even show
You've been saving up for months, I'ma blow it on clothes
Keep guessing about my next move, you're not even close
That wasn't even close

I don't wanna get in your way, but you get in my way
'Cause you're everything when I see you
(Everything when I'm seeing you)
I don't wanna ruin your day, I just want it okay
Guess I'm more than okay when I be with you
(Okay when I be with you)
I don't wanna tell me your name 'cause it fucks with my brain
Even when I sleep, dreams, I be seein' you
(Dreams, I be seeing you)
I don't wanna tell you nothing 'cause you know everything
And you see everything when it's me and you
(Me and you)

Send German Shepherds after you, burning sage like a ritual
It's dark, I lost my visual, double cross, fuck your schedule
Eat the night like a edible, 20 years, I'm ahead of you
Go to sleep boy, I'm bedding you, cut you off, I'm beheading you You're dead, man, so I'm deading you, you're just here 'cause I'm letting yo u
Drain Boys, VIP, let 'em through, coming back like a carousel
Drain Gang, it's bad, it's terrible, I'm breathing in the aerosol
Power up like I'm Dragonball, I'm still here, it's a miracle

I don't wanna get in your way, but you get in my way
'Cause you're everything when I see you
(Everything when I'm seeing you)
I don't wanna ruin your day, I just want it okay
Guess I'm more than okay when I be with you
(Okay when I be with you)
I don't wanna tell me your name 'cause it fucks with my brain
Even when I sleep, dreams, I'll be seein' you
(Dreams, I'll be seeing you)
I don't wanna tell you nothing 'cause you know everything
And you see everything when it's me and you
(Me and you)

Dreams, I'll be seeing you
Dreams, I'll be seeing you
Dreams, I'll be seeing you
