

DRESDEN ER

Bladée

Something for the soul, secret art of saying no
At the top and down below, it's the star of David (Never be alone)

Life is but a joke, and it's funny, don't you know?

Honey something's just for show, something's really crazy

We lo and behold

Pop out like a pro, D9 we gon take control

We're the structure we on go, we go all the way (We take it all the way)

We take it all the way

You hit all the notes in the piano of gold

But when I need you the most, it gets really quiet (That's the way it goes)

Watch two stars align at the same time

Angels sing most beautiful sounds

Watch the noise die down and reveal signs

Golden light shines down

Watch two stars align at the same time

Angels sing most beautiful sounds

Watch the noise die down and reveal signs

Golden light shines down

Not for long

Not for long

Not for long

Not for long

Sweet, sweet, sweet, sweet

(I need you) Sweet, sweet

Sweet, sweet, sweet

Sweet, sweet

Lost with you forever

Watch two stars align at the same time

Angels sing most beautiful sounds

Watch the noise die down and reveal signs

Golden light shines down (Shines down)

Watch two stars align at the same time

Angels sing most beautiful sonunds

Watch the noise die down and reveal signs

Golden light shines down

Oh, oh, oh

Oh, oh, oh
