Everlasting Flames

Bladee

Everlasting flame, see me aiming at your face
Hundred meter blade, put him back inside his grave
I was so afraid cause I couldn't feel the pain
Standing in the rain, I put silver in my chain

Snow landscapes, I see ice everywhere I go
Standing in the snow, woke up, I was blowing smoke
Holy ghost hundred years ago, when I didn't know
And your hoe wanted to go home but you didn't know
Finna snow, always been in Rome, I was building storms
Building wars, I was getting calls from beyond the walls
Sacred halls, went inside the mall, gotta spend it all
Always something new, but I knew you were always false

Everlasting flame, see me aiming at your face
Hundred meter blade, put him back inside his grave
I was so afraid cause I couldn't feel the pain
Standing in the rain, I put silver in my chain

Snow landscapes, I see ice everywhere I go
Standing in the snow, woke up, I was blowing smoke
Holy ghost, hundred years ago, when I didn't know
And your hoe wanted to go home but you didn't know
Finna snow, always been in Rome, I was building storms
Building wars, I was getting calls from beyond the walls
Sacred halls, went inside the mall, gotta spend it all
Always something new, but I knew you were always false

Everlasting flame, see me aiming at your face
Hundred meter blade, put him back inside his grave
I was so afraid cause I couldn't feel the pain
Standing in the rain, I put silver in my chain

Everlasting flame, got me rocking Gucci shades, now
Holy water in my cup, I ain't had enough
Thaiboy Goon pull up at the church, I ain't going home
Dress up all white, and a big Gucci golden watch
They say that, Thaiboy is the guardian in the watchtower
Holy power, keep me glowing when I'm in the dark
Broken heart, 'bout to go to war, leave you with a scar
Lonely in the dark like a falling star
Brushing into fame, everlasting flame
Put you in the grave, we got burning blade
Eaten by the snake, poison in your vein
You could wash away, in the burning blade

Everlasting flame, see me aiming at your face
Hundred meter blade, put him back inside his grave
I was so afraid cause I couldn't feel the pain
Standing in the rain, I put silver in my chain
