Lovenote

Bladee

Someone free me from my skin
Evaporated, now I'm gone in the wind
Something ended but nothing new did begin
I carry weight until my spine's giving in

My words they didn't mean a thing, I was just trying to get in You're looking for someone but I'm not him
What do you want from me, I'm just wondering
Hating on the kid, but I don't want to live
I don't have anything to give to you
I stay with the crew, but we don't need anything from you
I've been to Hell and back for 20 stacks
I keep on going 'til my visions black
I'm lost and I'm not going back
And I got a pack, leave me, I don't wanna match
It's funny how they wanna act
X-Ray Gucci shades so I can see through that Cut you in your throat and make you free at last
And they stalk me, when I'm out I gotta wear a mask

She gave me a love note
But I woke up with a cut throat
I can't let you come close
I'm the one your God chose, I stay in the condo

She gave me a love note
But I woke up with a cut throat
I can't let you come close
I'm the one your God chose, I stay in the condo

I will change for you, can I see you soon
I've stayed up so many moons, I've been waiting for you
I don't know what to do
I want the darkness to take over for me too
But the pain be true, take it away from you
You disrespect SG then they gon' sentence you
I'm with the drain, it's true, thinking 'bout draining you
Blood dripping on my Margiela shoes

She gave me a love note
But I woke up with a cut throat
I can't let you come close
I'm the one your God chose, I stay in the condo

She gave me a love note
But I woke up with a cut throat
I can't let you come close
I'm the one your God chose, I stay in the condo
