

LOVESTORY

Bladee

Everything came back to me
Every path leads back to you again
Everything came back to me
Every path leads back to you again

Perfect you got perfect details
Like my skin, baby, perfect
Perfect details
Everyone thinks it's so special
And it feels like
And it feels like I'm in a love story
Just like in a love st-
It feels just like in a love story

Just like in a love story
Just like in a love story
Just like in a love story
Just like in a love story
Just like in a love story
Just like in a love story
Just like in a love story
Just like in a love story

Make the city smell like perfume
Make the street smell like flowers
Make a moment
Everyone wants to be perfect
And it feels like, and it feels just like I've been daydreaming
Just like in a daydream
Feels just like I'm daydreaming
It feels like

Everything came back to me
Every path leads back to you again
Everything came back to me
Every path leads back to you again

Just like in a love story
Just like in a love story
Just like in a love story
Just like in a love story
Just like in a love story
Just like in a love story
Just like in a love story
Just like in a love story
