I get all through the stages
A fallen eye, a sacrifice to get to you, my angel
Your golden hair, the dust as a doll
The sun, the moon and the ocean
Blue skies, no clouds out as far as I can see

Only one at the top of the cross, lonely
In another world
Had to try once again, and I keep on trying
Try 'til this all works

I got eyes just for you in a different story
But it's just for me
Create as I speak, I can speak your language
Would you want to be
