Whatever

In comes I
The shortest straw I draw and fantasize
About another time
And walk forward with pride
I find a reason to the madness
Silent sigh
He sleeps and dreams of life
Wakes up and sees both sides

Ah, ah, ah
Wishing for a less hard lesson, look down, listen
Ah, ah, ah
I just want the one true essence, yes, my best friend
Ah, ah, ah
Hit 'em with the left-hand stretch 'em, right hand bless 'em
Ah, ah, ah
It's a endless fountain you can't find, search inside (Yeah)
Lust for life, trust won't die

From the darkness came a light
And the two align
From the darkness came a light
And the two align
And only truth shines through
The truth finds you
Intentions pure for all
And nothing's unholy at all

The destination's close for once
And all the struggles wasn't lost
And all the patience did pay off (Yeah)
And all the sinning gets absolved
And everything I thought I was (Yeah)
Becomes like shadows in the dark (Drain Gang)
I wake up from this dream I love
And I see everything, see everything at once

In comes I
The shortest straw I draw and fantasize
About another time
And walk forward with pride
I find a reason to the madness
Silent sigh
He sleeps and dreams of life
Wakes up and sees both sides
