

She's Always Dancing

Bladee

Words can't describe her eyes
She is so beautiful I die
Can't describe her eyes
Alright

We shed a feather in mid flight, in hopes we'll remember tonight
Who am I? I am no less than nothing

I might be forever fried but at least I tried
It goes around in a vicious cycle, we like it

The way she's dancing
Am I hallucinating?
It seems that she's fading away
Ooh, the way she's dancing
Feels like I'm hallucinating
It seems like she's fading away, 'ay

You wouldn't listen
Like a stupid fuck
Look at you now
