

(Drain Gang)

Rhinestone Ricky, to this lifestyle, I'm committed
Sunglasses on at night, I cannot see competition
Yeah, I do like to have fun, but it's always about business
Yeah, you know I'll be on time, be on nine to be specific
Yeah, you know this shit get silly
Made me stronger, didn't kill me
I'll be with you if you're willing
Through the phone, I'm sending kisses
I go all through the night, I'm still ambitious
I can't lie, I do confess to having issues
Man, this viper's really vicious
Man, it struck me through my fingers
Think the poison's gotten in me
Feel it spreading through my system
Man, I'm feeling kind of dizzy
Think I'll fade out in a minute
I can't seem to shake the sickness
Maybe I should get committed
Maybe I could be forgiven
I think grace is to be given
Out to everyone that's willing
To make changes in their living
Man, Drain Gang donny in the Audi like a Saudi
Neon kit under the body
I'm the light inside the party (Shield)
Man, you can't see me, I'm sorry
Prada walking out the lobby
Every time right on the money
Eyes wide open when it's sunny
Man, the stress crashing down, man
The pressure taking over
Couldn't brush this one off my shoulder
I could've sworn that it was over
There's this one place, don't want to go there
I really do not want to go there
Sometimes you need to crush a boulder
Some won't grow up, they just got older
(Varg<sup>2™</sup>)

Anxiety, yeah, I don't lie
Had to tell myself, "Don't cry"
Yes, finally, I can see the light
At the end of the tunnel, I didn't see the light
Anxiety, yeah, I don't lie
Had to tell myself, "Don't cry"
Yes, finally, I can see the light
At the end of the tunnel, I didn't see the light
Anxiety, yeah, I don't lie
Had to tell myself, "Don't cry"
Yes, finally, I can see the light
At the end of the tunnel, I didn't see the light
Anxiety, yeah, I don't lie
Had to tell myself, "Don't cry"
Yes, finally, I can see the light

(Shield Gang)

Change for me, change for me, change for me (Anxiety, yeah I don't lie)

Change for me, change for me, change for me (Had to tell myself, "Don't cry"
)

Change for me, change for me, change for me (Anxiety, yeah I don't lie)

Change for me, change for me, change for me

At the end of the tunnel, I didn't see the light
