

Subaru

Bladée

Lost a couple thousands, it means nothing to me
I'm still not being noticed, she's not looking at me
I bury all those feelings in the darkness in me
So many shields on me that you look harmless to me
It means nothing to me
She's not looking at me
In the darkness in me
That you look harmless to me

Final storm, final frontier, so I disappear
Try to hide tears when I'm near, bad atmosphere
Everywhere, I got new gear, never used it
Subaru, ride through the mist with no music

Lost all essence, counting three blessings
Wanna be legends, I live with depression
C-section, razorblade lesson
I know of three heavens, I want to see seven

Final storm, final frontier, so I disappear
Try to hide tears when I'm near, bad atmosphere
Everywhere, I got new gear, never used it
Subaru, ride through the mist with no music
