

HE DON'T

Blaise Moore

Tastes like morphine
But less sweet
Sound like honey
When I speak
But baby wanna, he wanna test me
But I love it like a drug
You're trying

Want that sex appeal
But I'm his angel
No, for him I would kill
And ride the thrill like a wave

He don't wanna try no more
No, he don't wanna put in effort
No, he just wanna post up, look hard
He don't wanna see me 'fore dark

He don't wanna try no more
No, he don't wanna put in effort
He don't wanna try
No, he don't wanna

Feel like whiskey
Just less sweet
Say you need me
Yeah, lie to me
But baby wanna, he want to feel me
But I do it for the love, I'm feining

Want that white pill
But still you, you won't heal
No, for him I would kill
And ride the thrill like a wave

He don't wanna try no more
No, he don't wanna put in effort
No, he just wanna post up, look hard
He don't wanna see me 'fore dark

He don't want to try no more
No, he don't want to put in effort
He don't want to try
No, he don't want to

He don't wanna, he don't wanna
Try
He don't wanna, he don't wanna
Try

He don't wanna try no more
No, he don't wanna put in effort
No, he just wanna post up, look hard
He don't wanna see me 'fore dark

He don't wanna try no more

No, he just wanna post up, look hard
