

Disappear

Blake Lewis

The world is watching
As you wrestle with your poisons
That you've failed to rout the noise with
The vultures circles
And they're thirsty for the moment when you've broken
But you're not hopeless

The sirens sounding
The comets falling
I'm with you, I'm with you
Let's watch the world disappear
The [?] running
The comets falling
I'm with you, I'm with you
Let's watch the world disappear
Let's watch the world disappear
Let's watch the world disappear
Let's watch the world disappear

The light is fading
As the demons in the mirror
Turn your story into a whisper
My hands are trembling
As I strain to hear the sounds of your departure
I pull you closer

The sirens sounding
The comets falling
I'm with you, I'm with you
Let's watch the world disappear
The [?] running
The comets falling
I'm with you, I'm with you
Let's watch the world disappear
Let's watch the world disappear
Let's watch the world disappear
Let's watch the world disappear
