

Start Again

Blake Lewis

Here we go!
A chance to start again
The melody it's calling me,
There's no time to pretend
It's time to start again!

Gone with the wind, no plans, I'm headed
Stepping to the mic, now I'm erratic
Strapped to the needle, got me hot and I'd let it
Yes, I said it! It's me for the records, so
La la la melody's calling me
So I'll be following it far
Don't abandon me now,
Gonna find it somehow
Lost when the future came with the present
Only anything I want, I can get it
So I'll get it, it's everything I wanted
I can keep a promise, and I want to get for granted
So, la la la la melody's calling me
So I'll be singing it loud
Love is the sound, are you hearing it now?!
Good enough, it's just not good enough
'Cause you'll always want more

So, here we go!
A chance to start again
The melody it's calling me,
There's no time to pretend
It's time to start again!
It's time to start again!
It's time to start again!
It's time to start again!

Humble by the lack of light and all the pressure
I stumble on the tracks of life all that matters
Now, I'm back and better than ever!
Got no swag, but still I'm clever, so
La la la la melody's calling me
So I'll be singing it loud
Love is the sound, are you hearing it now?!
Good enough, it's just not good enough
'Cause you'll always want more

So, here we go!
A chance to start again
The melody it's calling me,
There's no time to pretend
It's time to start again! Yeah!
It's time to start again! Yeah!
It's time to start again! Yeah!
It's time to start again! Yeah!
