

Let You Love Me

Blake McGrath

When I think about your love
I close my eyes let it surround me
Though I just don't understand
How to let you love me
It's not something I could earn
Yet it's something that you freely give
Or you simply ask of me

Be still and let you love me
So I will let you love me
I am here with open hands
All I need is you again
No I won't move, let my soul be still
So I will let you love me
Yeah I will let you love me

Ohhhhhh
Ohhhhhh
Ohhhhhh
Ohhhhhh

When I think about your love
All the stars light up around me
I feel your presence in the wind
And I know that you love me

So I will let you love me
I am here with open hands
All I need is you again
No I won't move, let my soul be still
So I will let you love me
Yes I will let you love me

Ohhhhhh
Ohhhhhh
Ohhhhhh
Ohhhhhh

Yes I will let you love me
Oh yes I will let you love me
Let you love me
Oh yes I will let you love me
Oh yes I will let you love me
Let you love me
Oh yes I will let you love me
Oh yes I will let you love me
Let you love me
Oh yes I will let you love me
Oh yes I will let you love me
Let you love me

Ohhhhhh
Ohhhhhh
Ohhhhhh
Ohhhhhh

When I think about your love

I close my eyes let it surround me
Though I just don't understand
How to let you love me
