

Unafraid

Blake McGrath

Been looking at myself in the mirror
Wishing that the image was clearer
Trying to come alive but feel so dead
Staring face to face with the monster
In my head

Even after all this work on myself
Fear's still tryna drag me back to hell
But

I'm fortified [?] this time
I ain't giving up, no, I ain't giving up
I got no white flag, I'm redefined
I ain't giving up, no, I ain't giving up
I'm unafraid of face whatever comes my way
No more need to hide 'cause this time I'm unafraid

Your love, don't give up
I'm unafraid
Your love, don't give up

There I go again overthinking
The hole inside my soul wants me drinking
Moving forward but thrown back to the start
Am I the only one with this feeling
In my heart

Even after all these lessons I'm learning (I'm learning)
And a monster tries to tell me I'm worthless
But I know that

I'm fortified [?] this time
I ain't giving up, no, I ain't giving up
I got no white flag, I'm redefined
I ain't giving up, no, I ain't giving up
I'm unafraid of face whatever comes my way
No more need to hide 'cause this time I'm unafraid

(I'm unafraid)
Your love, don't give up
I'm unafraid (I'm unafraid)
Your love, don't give up
I'm unafraid

I know, fear can be a symbol
Telling me be careful, in the hurricane
I'm fighting off the self talk that keeps on Giving me reasons to stop, instead I
Hold myself and say
Your love, don't give up

I'm fortified [?] this time
I ain't giving up, no, I ain't giving up
I got no white flag, I'm redefined
I ain't giving up, no, I ain't giving up
I'm unafraid of face whatever comes my way
No more need to hide 'cause this time I'm unafraid

(I'm unafraind)
Your love, don't give up
(I'm unafraind)
This time I'm unafraind
(I'm unafraind)
Your love, don't give up (I'm unafraind, I'm unafraind)
(I'm unafraind)
No more need to hide 'cause this time I'm unafraind
