

Never Forever

Blake Mills

If you're looking for Romeo
I'll show you where to go
If you're looking for Eden
I'll show you the meaning

Whatever the words
On the tip of your tongue
Whatever the words
On the tip of your tongue

Never the right time
We're waiting in line
For thirty minutes
For a cup of coffee
A small cup of coffee
Like watching paint dry
Waiting in line until the end of time

They say that modern man
And modern woman
Have a short attention span but
My life is wasting
Standing in line waiting
And the tv program
Takes a decade to understand
Like watching paint dry
It's a lie
I'll tell you why

Never the time in the day
Never the time in the day
Never the time it would take
Just to leave the bungalow
And bump into someone you know
Is there some place we could go
Where forever waters flow
Tell me quickly what to bring
Because the snake is rattling
And I've been waiting in advance
And all I'm asking for's a chance

Never let me know
Never let me know
Never no never no never ever
No never ever never ever no time
Could sever you from my heart
Never no never no never ever
No never ever never ever no time
Could sever you from my heart
Never forever
No, never's the right time
