

Something Better

Blanca

It's been a couple years
I've been on my own
Now I know that I'm not alone
You're givin' me a reason to carry on
To carry on, yeah yeah

Yeah everything's different nowadays
I lost a few ones along the way
I had to learn to trust, it'll be ok
It'll be ok

Every moment
I was sure I wouldn't make it through
I was safe because of You

I don't know how
But You take all my pain
And You turn it in to something better
Oh something better
There's not a tear
That You let go to waste
No, You turn it into something better
Oh something better

You say You never leave
And You really don't
A kind of love that I never known
You took over my heart and You made a home You made a home

And all the broken pieces within
You put them together again
And with You a new story begins
Begins

I don't know how
But You take all my pain
And You turn it in to something better
Oh something better
There's not a tear
That You'll let go to waste
No, You turn it into something better
Oh something better

Ah-ah-ah, ah-ah-ah (You turn it into something better)
Ah-ah-ah, ah-ah-ah something better
Ah-ah-ah, ah-ah-ah (You turn it into something better)
Ah-ah-ah, ah-ah-ah something better

Something in the way You move
I never understood
That it all works for my good
Every moment
I was sure I wouldn't make it through
I was safe because of You

I don't know how
But You take all my pain

And You turn it in to something better
Oh something better
There's not a tear
That You'll let go to waste
No, You turn it into something better
Oh something better

Ah-ah-ah, ah-ah-ah (Ooh, yeah)
Ah-ah-ah, ah-ah-ah something better
Ah-ah-ah, ah-ah-ah (Something, oh)
Ah-ah-ah, ah-ah-ah something better
Ah-ah-ah, ah-ah-ah (Always turn it)
Ah-ah-ah, ah-ah-ah something better
Ah-ah-ah, ah-ah-ah (That's what You do, that's what You do)
Ah-ah-ah, ah-ah-ah something better
