

Temporary

Blanca

These days I've been in transition
Emotions they blur my vision
Trying to find what's been missing
But I'm finding it harder to let go

So much time that I wasted tryin' a change it
I always wanna run away, never face it
Stuck inside my mind, getting complicated
I gotta keep reminding myself

Don't worry
Don't worry
When the weight gets heavy
It's only temporary
Don't worry
Don't worry
So unnecessary
It's only temporary, temporary

I need to slow it down
Slow it, slow it down
Slow it, slow it down

Hard days will pass, just a moment
Learning to trust without knowing
I don't need closure
Won't lose sleep over
Thoughts that pull me lower no

So much time that I wasted tryin' a change it
I always wanna run away, never face it
Stuck inside my mind, getting complicated
I gotta keep reminding myself

Don't worry
Don't worry
When the weight gets heavy
It's only temporary
Don't worry
Don't worry
So unnecessary
It's only temporary, temporary

I need to slow it down
Slow it, slow it down
Slow it, slow it down
