

Again, I Wait For The World

Blancmange

Again I wait for the world
I'm late again
Funny how time slips away quote

I have no excuse but I have an excuse
But why should I tell you them
I know that I'm wrong but I wanna be right
It's just the world that's gone out of time

And so, I wait for my world to come 'round again
Can't look in the face of these home truths

I have an excuse but I have no excuse
But why should I tell you them
I know that I'm wrong but I wanna be right
It's just the world that's gone out of time

Again I wait for the world

Again I wait for the world
I'm late again
Funny how time slips away quote

I have no excuse but I have an excuse
But why should I tell you them
I know that I'm wrong but I wanna be right
It's just the world that's gone out of time
