We keep getting excited
Jump back on the wagon now
We keep losing ourselves
We keep getting excited
About things beyond our control on a TV show

You know I'm on those tablets
They're meant to keep me well grounded
On terra firma leveled ground
Stop me climbing the walls
Keep all my chairs at home
Keep all my chairs at home
Keep all my chairs at home

(Cup of tea)
(A cup of tea)

We keep getting excited
We keep losing ourselves
We keep getting excited
Beyond the capabilities of mortal souls
We can't help ourselves or understand
I'm sure you do, I'm sure you do, I'm sure you do
What lies ahead is very much like what lies behind
Easier told than understood

I'm on those tablets
They're meant to keep me well grounded
On terra firma leveled ground
Stop me climbing the walls
Keep all my chairs at home
Keep all my chairs at home
Keep all my chairs at home
Inside the bowery
We're lost inside the bowery
We're lost inside the bowery
