

I Would

Blancmange

Shouted, someone notice
I'd look so hard to find you clearly
I'd look so hard to find you clearly
Like word blindness I see you clearly
Thoughts both dim and grey
And grey
And grey
And grey
Like word blindness I see you clearly
Thoughts both dim and grey
And grey
And grey
And grey

Shouted, someone notice
I'd look so hard to find to clearly
I'd look so hard, I dream of reality
Like word blindness I see you clearly
Thoughts, dim and grey
Like word blindness I see you clearly
Thoughts both dim and grey
And grey
And grey

Shouted, someone notice
I'd look so hard to find you clearly
I dream of reality
Like word blindness I see you clearly
Thoughts both dim and grey
And grey
And grey
And grey

Like word blindness I see you clearly
Thoughts both dim and grey
And grey
And grey
And grey

Are you out there?
Waiting to share
And someone to care
For you out there
Are you out there?
(Shouted, someone notice!)
Waiting to share
Shouted, someone notice
(Shouted, someone notice!)
Shouted, someone care
